6 October – Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity - Harvest Thanksgiving

The Collect

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
grant that we may use them to your glory,
for the relief of those in need and for your own well-being;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Psalm 100

O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth;
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
Know that the Lord is God; it is he that has made us and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and bless his name.
For the Lord is gracious; his steadfast love is everlasting, and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation

Gospel Reading: John 6. 25-35

When the disciples found Jesus on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat."' Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.' Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'

Prayer after Communion

God our creator, you feed your children with the true manna, the living bread from heaven:
let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage until we come to that place where hunger and thirst are no more; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gift Aid: If you are a taxpayer please let the church re-claim the tax that you have paid on your donation, we can only do this if you put your collection in a yellow envelope and complete the details on the front.

Bakewell Asylum Seeker and Refugee Network is putting together a recipe book for sale at Christmas. Please help by contributing a favourite recipe. The recipe may be of any type - e.g. starter, main course (meat/fish/vegetarian), hot/cold dessert, baking, soups, accompaniments etc. The ingredients should be easily available (preferably in most supermarkets), and there should not be too many. You can contribute a number of recipes, but not all may be used depending on the number and balance of other contributions. Write out your recipe[s] under the following headings: Title of dish, number of Servings, list of Ingredients, Method of preparation, and 'Serve with...' suggestions if relevant. [Weights and measures can be given in lbs. or grams, pints or fluid ounces. In any case both alternatives will be given in the book]. In not more than 30 words explain why your recipe is a good one - e.g. good for family occasions, quick to make, simple ingredients, people always ask for more, can be frozen etc. Add your name (which will also appear in the book). You can post it or email or hand it to: Sue Clark, Hill View, Burton Close Drive, Bakewell, DE45 1BG, sue@clark58.eclipse.co.uk. Deadline for contributions: Sunday 20 October! Thank you for your support!

If you wish to have anything added to the pew sheet please contact Canon Tony's PA, Emma Raynes, by 10am Thursday for inclusion in the following Sunday's pew sheet, thank you. 01629 814462 / bakewelljazzypa@gmail.com
Please note Emma is away from the office 8-23 October inc.

Please remember in your prayers:
