5th November – All Saints Sunday

Congratulations to Joyce Brown on being awarded the Bishop's Badge for her services to All Saints for over 60 years.

Collect of the Day

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love
you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,

Reading: 1 John 3. 1-3

¹See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Gradual Hymn

We give immortal praise
to God the Father's Love
for all our comforts here
and better hopes above:
he sent His own eternal Son,
to die for sins that we had done.

To God the Son belongs
immortal glory too,
who bought us with his blood
from everlasting woe;
and now he lives, and now he reigns,
and sees the fruit of all his pains.

To God the Spirit's name immortal worship give,
whose new-creating pow'r
makes the dead sinner live:
his work completes the great design and fills the soul with joy divine.

To God the Trinity
be endless honours done,
the undivided Three,
and the mysterious One:
where reason fails with all her pow'rs,
there faith prevails, and love adores.

Gospel: Matthew 5. 1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Post Communion Prayer

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things:

may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We support The High Peak food bank

Christian Aid has started a campaign (The Big Shift) asking banks to use our money to support the expansion of clean energy instead of investing in fossil fuels that cause climate change and touch the lives of millions of people.

Please sign and put a message on one of the renewable pound stickers at the back of the church and these will be presented to the banks in Bakewell.

19th November at 6pm will be the service of Commemoration of the Departed, there is a list at the back of church for names of loved ones to be remembered.

12 noon on Wednesday, 22nd November, a talk by Peter Stubbs - "Thoughts on Courts, Crime and Capital Punishment" - an entertaining view of 1,000 years of English law. £10, including a soup and sandwich lunch – please add your name to the list at the back of church if you wish to attend.

If any member of the congregation wishes to order a Christmas tree, please let Brenda know asap. 4ft- £11.40 or 6ft- £15.60. Delivery will be on Monday, 4th December
