Schools Sing-a-long

On Friday 17th June at 1.30pm, Bakewell Infants and Juniors are coming to have a fun sing in All Saints

They will be performing a variety of their own songs, plus I will be adding in some fun items for everybody to join in.

Come along and find out what happens when you have a penguin Home for tea and, amazingly, learn how to sing three songs AT THE SAME TIME!

See you there.

Urgent! Books Needed!!

The stockroom for 'All Saints Used Book Stall (aka our shed) is pretty empty

Since we started last September, the Book Stall has raised just short of £500. . . .we've sold a lot of books. All the money raised is then match-funded by a member of the congregation!

If you have any books you no longer need would you please consider giving them to us. All proceeds go to The Church Organ Fund. Please also let friends and family know who May be having a clear out.

I would be more than happy to collect any books locally or you can arrange to drop them off at my house in Bakewell. You can email me on kazzabezza@hotmail.co.uk or ring me on 07443 595067.

For small donations of books, there is a plastic box under the A frame next to the stall in church

A big thank you to everyone who has supported the stall so far.

Karen

(for anyone who hasn't tried it, there are some really good books there from 'Pirates love Underpants' which the younger members of my family loved, to an Anne Cleeves, which I did! Ed.)

Coffee concert Saturday 4th June at 11am 'Galliarda'

Featuring music of elegant calm, dance tunes & songs. They sing and play lute, harpsichord & hurdy-gurdy.

Coffee & biscuits available from 10.15 in the Newark room.

Talks with lunch

The next lunchtime talk will be at 12 noon on Wednesday, 15 June.

Michael Hillam will tell us about "Some curiosities of Bakewell". Michael is always very informative and entertaining and this talk should certainly be one not to be missed. You might learn something! The talk will be followed, as ever, by a soup and sandwich lunch. The cost is £10, all proceeds of which will go to the organ restoration fund. In order to help with catering, please either sign up to the list at the back of church or inform Dot - 07752 414719 - or Joyce - 01629 640134 - if you intend to come.

Organ Restoration Fund

An increase in funding this month thanks to several donations. both direct and digital including 4 sponsor a pipes ~ all gratefully received.

Book stall continues to raise about £50 per month.

100 club continues to provide a regular income.

Lunchtime talk & coffee concert were both very successful.

Art exhibition is on display in church and hoping to raise £1,000 this year

Dot has applied for several grants and we wait, hope and pray that some will be successful.

We are very fortunate that all fund-raising and donations will be matched funded for the time being, doubling any donation you make.

Help!

The well dressers are going to need a great number of blue petals for the background of the church well dressing.

Delphiniums and blue hydrangeas are particularly good.

If you grow them, please save them for us.

Caring for God's Acre; Count on Nature

Caring for God's Acre works nationally to support groups and individuals to investigate, care for, and enjoy churchyards and burial grounds. There are over 20,000 burial grounds in England and Wales, ranging from small rural medieval churchyards to large Victorian city cemeteries, spanning different cultures, religions and centuries. Burial grounds can be ideal places for introducing people to wildlife and local heritage.

Together with the Church of England, Church in Wales and A Rocha UK they are asking churches from all denominations to use Love Your Burial Ground Week (June 4th-12th 2022) as a springboard to start recording the wildlife within their churchyards.

This year we are running a wildlife spotting event at All Saints as part of Churches Count on Nature .

We will be focussing mainly on wildflower and tree identification, while recording any insects, birds or even mammals that stay still for long enough! Our records will be submitted to a national database. We would love to know everything you see - from the smallest ladybird to the largest yew tree. Last year over 17,000 wildlife records were submitted from across the country.

Join us on Tuesday June 6th from 10 am to see what you can find, or add your observations to the recording sheets left at the back of church for the rest of the week.

A Word from St Anne's

We have reached the month of June and glorious Summer is upon us, with its profusion of colour and growth in the natural world, and we all realise how lucky we are to live in this part of the world, where our natural surroundings are so beautiful.

At St Anne's we recently carried out a much needed spring clean of the church, spurred on by the imminence of some weddings! It is now looking much more welcoming, made all the more so by the lovely flowers of late spring/early summer that grace the window sills. Our services remain twice monthly - a Communion on the second Sunday of the month, led by a member of the clergy, and a congregation-led one on the fourth Sunday, which will resume on the 26th of June after a break in May. This is still an "evolving experiment" and we look forward in faith to see where it will lead us.

Like everywhere else, Over Haddon is celebrating the Platinum Jubilee on the first weekend of June. As well as a street party on the Sunday afternoon (we have had permission to close off Main Street to traffic between 12 and 5pm!) followed by games at the village hall, we will be providing cream teas at the church on the Saturday, and hopefully all the community will be joining in. Anyone reading this magazine is most welcome to join us for a cream tea at the church.

This year especially, with the dark clouds of war, economic privations and climate disaster threatening us from all sides, we need such a celebration to remind us of the good things of this world.

The Bakewell Church Art Group Exhibition 2022

The Art Group has placed pictures on the side walls of the church to bring a bit of colour into our lives and to demonstrate what we have achieved since we started a few years ago. Please take the time to view and enjoy the work on display. Also it might be beneficial to tell friends and neighbours so they too can visit the church and enjoy both the pictures and the atmosphere of the building. They might even like to join the group.

The exhibition will be in place for most of the year to help raise funds to restore our historic church organ.

Many of the pictures have been produced by art club members for the first time and demonstrate the high level of skill that can be achieved in a short time!

The Art Group meets on a Tuesday morning from 10am to 12 noon.

Come along and enjoy yourself!

Steve Taylor

The omission of commas on the order of service meant that worshippers at a cathedral were informed that the anthems to be sung at Matins and Evensong would be "Wash me Wesley" and "I will wash Hopkins".
