OCTOBER 2023

Bishop's Harvest Appeal 2023

The Bishop's Harvest Appeal this year is called Trees for Life - Burundi.

It is to help the people of the Diocese of Bujumbura plant saplings to protect lives and livelihoods from being washed away by seasonal rains.

Soil erosion causes fields, crops, animals, homes and schools to disappear down hillsides, due to flash floods. The trees help stabilise the land and, of course, counter the effects of climate change.

Read more by going to <https://derby.anglican.org/trees> If you click on the Bishop of Repton's (Bishop Malcolm) visit to this East African state, you may be further enthused. And who knows? He might come and talk to us about it!

The diocese hopes to raise £5,000 towards the project.

PS One of our congregation has been told of Tearfund's project in Burundi, which has opened five health centres in conjunction with a church and community initiative. Perhaps more of that another time.

Ringer's surprise!

David Blackwell, a ringer from Clowne, visited Bakewell's practise night recently. He said he learned to ring tower bells in the 1950's whilst a pupil at Lady Manners School but left Bakewell shortly afterwards.

On the ringing chamber wall hangs a framed 1959 photograph of three schoolboys being shown the tenor bell by the then tower captain Clyde Bateman. The tenor bell had been taken from the belfry to have its wooden headstock replaced with an iron one complete with roller bearings. Barry Bateman, Clyde's son and a friend of the three schoolboys, took the photograph and donated it to the tower many years later.

David was asked if he recognised any of the schoolboys in the photograph. Imagine everyone's surprise when David recognised himself in the photograph. He didn't remember it being taken but was delighted that his school friend Barry had recorded the occasion. After an evening of ringing on his old bells -the first time in over 60 years -David left with a promise to visit Barry who now lives in Edensor.

The pictures show the framed 1959 photograph and David Blackwell standing with current tower captain Pauline Boyle.

Cakes

On Saturday 14th October, Voci Voices, a quartet with piano accompaniment, will be performing a concert at All Saints (details elsewhere in Parish Pump)

Since this is an afternoon concert, we intend to offer the audience a cup of tea and a slice of cake after the performance. If you would be prepared to offer a cake for this occasion, please would you have a word with Dot. Thank you.

Bread Maker

Would anyone like a hardly-used Morphy Richards fastbake to bake their own bread? Free except for a small donation to the Organ Fund. Contact Pat 01629 815225

Rhos Orpheus Male Voice Choir

The choir are coming to us - probably for the last time - on Saturday 6th July 2024. Make a note in your diary now. They will be singing in Southwell Cathedral in the afternoon and then will come on to us. They have recently sung for the King and Queen in Cardiff.

They love us and we love them! It will be great to have them one more time.

Wood block

Has anyone got a square wooden block about 2-3inches thick that can go behind the lectern and greatly assist the vertically challenged??

BELL TOWER OPEN EVENING ALL SAINTS CHURCH BAKEWELL

As part of Heritage Open Days, organised by the Old House Museum Bakewell, the Bell Tower was opened at 6.30 on Thursday 14th September 2023.

John, Pauline and the bell ringers at All Saints Church Bakewell provided a tour and visitors were able to sit in on the evening's bell ringing practice and view the workings of the magnificent clock.

Free tickets were obtained online via the Old House Museum website and visitors were amazed and fascinated by the large 'secret' room at the top of the staircase where the ringers maintain and wind the clock and maintain and ring the bells.

Organ Restoration Fund

We are finally in a position to apply for grants and this week 3 have been applied for, from Benefact Trust, Garfield Weston and Pilling trust, we await their decisions.

Lunchtime talks have been successful this year with just 1 to go. The coffee concerts have not been as regular as in the past but there are 3 more to come before Christmas. We also have 3 other concerts in October & November so the Autumn will be musical at All Saints. Hopefully these will be raise a substantial amount for the organ fund.

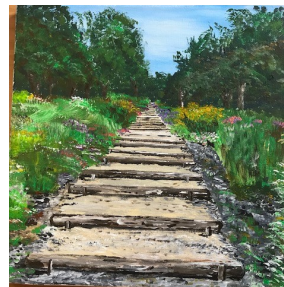

The Book stall and 100 club, continue to provide a regular income.

Art Group

Our art group took a break in September but now on Tuesday 3rd October

we will be back and ready to beat the winter gloom with pencil, paint, coffee and friendship. We are a small group - 8 of us; men and women of very mixed abilities - and we would love it if you come along and see if you would like to join in.

We meet on Tuesdays from 10-12noon in the Newark and there is a nominal fee of £2.50 per session which includes your coffee. Even if you have never put paintbrush to paper before, come along and give it a go. You will find that you get a bit better each week. I know. I'm wearing the T shirt.

Card Stall

"Ruth and Tony Short order, wrap and price the card stall stock but can't be in church as often as they used to be. The card stall needs to be topped up from the stock in the cupboard just to the left of the steps as you come into church. Any member of the congregation who notices gaps in the display is invited to give a hand."

Music for the autumn at All Saints

We have an exciting programme of music at All Saints for the autumn and something for all tastes. All of the concerts are to raise funds for the organ restoration fund.

CANTIAMO will perform at 7.30pm on Saturday, 7 October. Cantiamo Vocal Harmony is a flexible three voice ensemble accompanied by piano, who perform solos, duets and trios covering many styles of music, including opera, operetta, madrigals, musicals/Disney, Sacred songs and much more. The group was formed by Andrew Marples in January 2018 and includes Canon Nigel's daughter, Hannah. They have quickly become a very popular group with audiences who enjoy both the fine solo voices and the amazing blend when singing as an ensemble. They have performed in many local venues, but this will be their first concert in Bakewell. Tickets are £10, available from The Little Vagabond bookshop or can be reserved from Dot Bushen - 01629 814496/07752 674719 or from Hannah Salt - 077941 44144 and to be paid for on the door.

At 2.30pm on Saturday, 14 October we shall be pleased to welcome VOCI VOICES, a quartet of voices for all seasons, with a piano accompaniment. Voci Voices perform a diverse programme from the world of swing, jazz, movies, musicals, opera and operetta, all performed with panache and style. The group have performed in Bakewell once before and we are happy to welcome them back. Enjoy a glass of wine in the interval and/ or a cup of tea and a slice of cake after the performance. Tickets are £10, from the Little Vagabond bookshop, from Dot Bushen - 01629 814496/ 0775 2674719, or on the door. More concerts will follow in November and early December.

Andrea Banks It would be greatly appreciated if anyone who knew Andrea Banks, could visit her in the care home----"Ivonbrook" Darley Bridge (Tel No-01629—735770) She is pretty isolated there and in need of some stimulation,-a good chat, a friendly face would help her through her day. If you need help getting there or need instructions on how to get there, please telephone Hilary Bartlett on 01246-583-587.

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL - 7-17 December 2023

Here we go again! The weather has definitely become autumnal, the nights are drawing in and our thoughts turn to Christmas. And that means the fifteenth Christmas Tree Festival. The festival will be opened during a short service at 7pm on Thursday, 7 December and, as usual, the service will be followed by wine and nibbles. The church will then be open daily from 9.30am to 4pm (excepting Thursday, when mulled wine and mince pies will be available until 7pm, following St Anselm's carol service that afternoon). Sunday opening hours will be 12 noon to 4pm. The festival will close with a community carol service at 6pm on Sunday, 17 December.

Home made refreshments will be served daily in the Open Door café from 10am to 3.30pm (Sunday - 12.30-3.30)

And now - on bended knee - we shall need help with:-

Unloading and positioning of trees on Monday, 4 December

Stewarding and welcoming visitors into church

Volunteers to help in the café, on a two shift rota - 10am - 1pm and 1pm to 4pm

The provision of cakes, biscuits and mince pies

Removal of trees and clearing up on Tuesday and Wednesday, 2 and 3 January, 2024.

The tree festival has become an essential part of the Bakewell tradition. So many people say that it is their favourite part of the run up to Christmas. We hope that this year's festival will be as popular and successful as ever and any help you can give to achieve this end would be greatly appreciated. If you can offer assistance or have any questions, please have a word with Dot - 814496 or 07752 674719.
