

FOR OUR PRAYERS

The Sick: and those in need of our prayers: Andrea Banks; Lisa Woodhouse; Rita Foxlow; Roy Sheratt Carol Leonard, David Warrington, Jean Dumville; Walter Deeter, Keith Russon, Ann Whitehead,

Your giving

The regular, faithful, and committed giving by our church family, maintains our much-loved church, pays our bills (which increase every year as they do for our homes), makes ministry possible and expresses our love and gratitude to God. To play a part please consider giving in one of the following ways.

Contactless giving using the card reader next to the card stall at the back of church.

Use of the QR code in church.

Regular giving using the Parish Giving Scheme. This scheme enables us to make plans with confidence. For details, please speak to Rick Naylor.

To make a gift of cash or by cheque please use the donation boxes near the church porch. If you can increase your gift by using Gift Aid, please use one of the yellow envelopes, enter your details and enclose your offering. Thank you for playing your part.

The Collect

God our redeemer,
you have delivered us from the
power of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
grant, that as by his death he has
recalled us to life,
so by his continual presence in us he
may raise us
to eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen

First Reading Acts 17.22-31

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, 'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him - though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said, "For we too are his offspring."

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

Gospel Reading John 14.15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.'

Prayer after Communion

God our Father, whose Son Jesus Christ gives the water of
eternal life:
may we thirst for you,
the spring of life and source of goodness,
through him who is alive and reigns, now and
for ever. Amen.

ART EXHIBITION AND SALE

Between 5 and 26 May an exhibition of the late Steve Taylor's artwork is to be held in the Newark. Most, but not all, of the paintings will be for sale. Judith is, very generously, donating the proceeds to All Saints. The exhibition will open on Friday, 5 June at 7pm, with a wine reception and, thereafter will be open daily between 10am and 4pm (12 noon to 4pm on Sundays) We should be most grateful for any offers to "steward" the exhibition. If you are able to offer a couple of hours to man the Newark and chat to any viewers, there is a rota at the back of church. Simply add your name to your chosen date and time. Thank you.

WANTED - volunteers to lead intercessions please.

Most people will be aware that, over a number of months, Susan HILLAM has been enabling Ann Rose to attend church by collecting and returning her to the Old Vicarage Care Home. Ann has really appreciated this and we thank Susan very much. However, Ann has now been moved to Burton Closes. Susan does not have transport and so cannot continue to offer this outreach. Would anyone be able to step in? Please give it some thought. It would be greatly appreciated. If you feel able to help, please have a word with Dot
