

FOR OUR PRAYERS

The Sick: and those in need of our prayers: Lisa Woodhouse, Rita Foxlow, Roy Sheratt, Carol Leonard, David Warrington, Jean Dumville, Walter Deeter, Ann Whitehead, Sarah, Hibre Marriott

The Departed: Elizabeth Pick, Anne Turner, Andrea Banks

Your giving

The regular, faithful, and committed giving by our church family, maintains our much-loved church, pays our bills (which increase every year as they do for our homes), makes ministry possible and expresses our love and gratitude to God. To play a part please consider giving in one of the following ways.

Contactless giving using the card reader next to the card stall at the back of church.

Use of the QR code in church.

Regular giving using the Parish Giving Scheme. This scheme enables us to make plans with confidence. For details, please speak to Rick Naylor.

To make a gift of cash or by cheque please use the donation boxes near the church porch. If you can increase your gift by using Gift Aid, please use one of the yellow envelopes, enter your details and enclose your offering.

Please consider leaving a donation to All Saints in your will.

Thank you for playing your part.

The Collect

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things,
may obtain your promises,
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

First Reading: Romans 8.1-11

There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law – indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13.1-9,18-23

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the lake. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: 'Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!

Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away.

As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.'

Prayer after Communion

God of our pilgrimage,
you have led us to the living water:
refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

.The Notices

Four of Steve Taylor's paintings exhibited during June were sold for a total of £380.

At Judith's request this sum has been donated to church funds.

We are very grateful to Judith for her generosity.

The exhibition brought a great deal of pleasure, both to our regular congregation and to the many visitors to the church.

Thank you, Judith.
