The Departed: Jane Anne Needham, Patricia Lord, John Lord, Gary Edward Twigg

Your giving

The regular, faithful, and committed giving by our church family, maintains our much-loved church, pays our bills (which increase every year as they do for our homes), makes ministry possible and expresses our love and gratitude to God. To play a part please consider giving in one of the following ways.

Contactless giving using the card reader next to the card stall at the back of church.

Use of the QR code in church.

Regular giving using the Parish Giving Scheme. This scheme enables us to make plans with confidence. For details, please speak to Rick Naylor. To make a gift of cash or by cheque please use the donation boxes near the church porch. If you can increase your gift by using Gift Aid, please use one of the yellow envelopes, enter your details and enclose your offering.

Please consider leaving a donation to All Saints in your will.

Thank you for playing your part.

The Collect

Heavenly Father,
whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life:
grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory
we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom;
where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Zephaniah 1.7,12-18

Be silent before the Lord GOD!
For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests.
At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts,
'The LORD will not do good, nor will he do harm.'
Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste.
Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them;
though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them.
The great day of the LORD is near,
near and hastening fast;
the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there.
That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements.
I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the LORD, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.
Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath;
in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Second Reading: Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus said, `For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents,* to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, "Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents." His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master." And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, "Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents." His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master." Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, "Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours." But his master replied, "You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

The Notices

The rotas for the Christmas Tree Festival are now at the back of church - stewarding, Open Door cafe and provision of cakes, biscuits, mince pies and soup. Please sign up as soon as you are able. Your help is invaluable and is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Saturday 21 November. Coffee concert with Wyns Tor singers, a small chamber choir of about 16 voices, based in Winster. Their repertoire is wide ranging from the early classics, through sacred and secular music, jazz and folk to modern choral music. Coffee served from 10.30am; concert begins at 11.15am. Free entry. Retiring collection in aid of ZINK.

Thursday 26 November. 10am-12noon Sew, Knit and Natter group in the Newark (£4 donation)

The church is looking pretty grubby at the moment and is in need of some serious tlc. Please come along on Saturday 28 November from 9am to give it an autumn clean. Any and all hands will be warmly welcomed!

We have organised a Christingle service for 7 December. Could anyone spare a couple of hours in the morning to make Christingles, please?
